Notice of Privacy Practices

This Notice of Privacy Practices contains a detailed description of how our office will protect your health information, your rights as a patient, and our common practices in dealing with patient health information. Please review it carefully.

Patient Rights:

When it comes to your health information, you have the following rights:

- Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record
- Ask us to correct your medical record
- Request confidential communications
- Ask us to limit what we use or share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared information
- Get a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

Patient Choices:

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share.

Uses and Disclosures Not Requiring your Authorization:

In the following circumstances, we may disclose your health information without your written authorization:

- To family members or close friends who are involved in your health care
- For certain limited research purposes
- For purpose of health and safety
- To Government agencies for purposes of their audits, investigations, and oversight activities
- To Government authorities to protect public safety or to assist in apprehending criminal offenders
- When required by court orders, search warrants, subpoenas, and as otherwise required by law

Please contact us with any questions, concerns, or complaints regarding our privacy practices.
